New KT Stash Society

The KT (Kansas Troubles) Quarterly Newsletter has ended. We still have a few available. However, coming in mid November, will be the new monthly KT Stash Society. KT Designer Lynn Hagmeier is really excited about all the things they have planned for each month. Some of those include, miniature quilts, table runners and home décor projects to lap quilts, wall hangings and much more. Lynn said that she would still include a few recipes, KTQ happenings and decorating ideas too. Lynn hopes this will help you use up some of your stash – and build it up some more with all the new fabric collections that she has coming out in the next year. The newsletter and 4 fat quarters will run $10 each month. So sign up today.

Selvages Block of the Month - Postponed

Due to the busy time of the year, going to market, and trying to get ready for the baby, I apologize, but we are going to have to postpone doing the Selvages Block of the Month. We will try to start a Block of the Month in January. So look for the quilt display and more information.

Market Update...

Houston was absolutely amazing! We spent two full days walking through 23 isles of vendors with different projects, patterns, notions, and fabrics.

We have a new line of fabric from Maywood Studios called Cowboys and Indians that will be coming in the first part of December. Plus many, many, more.

Shop Face Lift...

While we were at Market in Houston, the shelf fairy came and visited our shop. The shop looks great! We have new shelves on our West wall which now makes all the fabric easier to see and easier to get too. So come take a look at all the fabric we found. We have put some new stuff back in our sale area as well. We hope to see everyone soon.
